Bibliography Checklist for Psychology of Sport (Physical Education 215)

	Criteria
	Sources are authoritative. Articles come from journals whose standards for publication include conscientious editorial review or peer review. Books cited are authored by individuals with appropriate credentials. Web sites are attributed to organizations or individuals with expertise on the topic at hand.
	Sources are current (Older articles are justified).
	Sources are varied. Citations represent various media (book, journal, website, etc.) Where appropriate, diverse points of view are represented. Sources represent a range of publication dates to show the spectrum of thought on the topic, as appropriate.
	Sources are of an appropriate number. At least [five] different sources are included. No single source provides the primary substance for the final product.
	Sources represent appropriate scope for the assignment. Books and journal articles are not too highly specialized for the scope of the paper. General reference citations are used as background material.
	Special-interest web resources are acknowledged as such in the text of the document. Biases are explained.
	Popular literature is included only when appropriate and is acknowledged as such in the text.
	Citations follow APA citation style both in the text and in the list of references.
	Information from sources is integrated into a cohesive text.
