Good afternoon all!

You are receiving this because you are currently enrolled in CLA-381, to be taught next year in Greece. This email covers some information about the course logistics and a request for information/action from you.

The course cost is estimated currently at $4000 and will include airfare, in-country transportation, accommodations, some meals, excursions and tour guides. The payment schedule is as follows:

Non-refundable deposit: $400 due April 30

Payment #1: $1200 due October 1

Payment #2: $1200 due Dec 1

Final Payment: ~$1200 due Feb 1

You may make the initial payment by submitting $400 (cash/check/money order) to the Cashier's window on the first floor of Old Sem (indicate that the payment should be applied to the Classics course in Greece).

Though this course takes place later in the academic year, you may wish to be in touch with the Student Health Center and/or your home health care provider over the summer. In addition, please submit the completed health information form (see attached) to the Office of International & Off-Campus Studies (2nd floor- Old Sem) by April 30th.

Today is my last day at Cornell, but you may contact Prof. Gruber-Miller or Prof. Gayle Luck (Associate Dean of the College and Faculty Director of Off-Campus Studies) if you have any questions or concerns after that point.

Thank you!
Amanda
