

Application for Environmental Studies Cargill Fund Support for Off-Campus Courses
February 17, 2017

Please complete and return to ENV program chair, Rhawn Denniston, by October 1. Proposals will be considered by the ENV Committee on a year-by-year, case-by-case basis. Funding received in previous years does not impact the likelihood of funding in this round. Awards will be announced prior to the deadline for submission of off-campus course requests.

Name(s) of professor(s) teaching the course:

Course name and number:

Has this course been offered previously? If so, what was the enrollment?

Expected enrollment:

Days spent off campus:

Countries/areas visited by this course:

This course satisfies the following BA distribution requirement(s):

This course is a (choose between: requirement/elective/none) _____ for the _____ major.

What is the expected per student cost (after factoring in standard support from Academic Affairs for off-campus courses)? This should match the amount listed on the form submitted to the Office of International and Off-Campus Study.

Please discuss the specific goals of your class as they relate to environmental studies.

Please describe the specific ways in which environmental studies will be addressed in your course (readings, lectures, site visits, exercises, etc.).

Amount of Cargill support requested:

Justification for the amount requested:

Additional comments: