

Compare Your Health Plan Options with WebMD® Coverage Advisor™

Cornell College has updated your health insurance coverage option for 2011. Your benefits may have changed so it's important to determine which plan is best for your personal needs.

We are pleased to offer you WebMD Coverage Advisor. This decision-support tool provides the information you need to determine which health plan suits your healthcare coverage needs.

Free, Online, Easy to Use

The WebMD Coverage Advisor, brought to you by U.S. Bank, is a free online tool that enables you to evaluate your health insurance options and understand the costs and appropriateness of each plan. By utilizing this tool, you have the ability to:

- Create customized health profiles for you and your family
- Estimate medical services you and your family may need this year
- Estimate your annual health care costs
- Compare your health insurance options and out-of-pocket costs associated with each plan

How to Access
