

Get a little closer to nirvana

Block 5
2009-10

REL 5-382 Issues in Religious Method: Religions of Laos

This course will examine the Lao relationship with religion, from the predominant Theravada Buddhism to the conspicuous animism and ancestor worship practiced in daily ritual. Along with daily readings and reflective essays, this course will emphasize firsthand experiential learning. The program will be based primarily in Luang Prabang, with excursions to Angkor Wat and other historical/religious sites.

Questions? Contact:

Steven Sacks (x4209)

Religion Department

ssacks@cornellcollege.edu

Amanda Ross (x4385)

Off-Campus Studies

aross@cornellcollege.edu

Course entails additional cost estimated at $3500.

