

Ethics and Public Policy

POL 225

Above: George Bush Library in College Station, TX
Right: LBJ Library in Austin, Texas
Below: Austin at night

Block 6
2009-2010

An institutional approach is used, with a sharp focus upon late 20th century presidents. Their efforts to build trust in leadership by advancing integrity in government will be considered at Lyndon Johnson and George H. W.

Bush libraries in Austin and College Station, Texas.

This course entails additional costs estimated at $500

Questions? Contact:
Rob Sutherland (x4226)
Politics Department

Amanda Ross (x4385)
Off-Campus Studies