

Wagner and Wagnerism at the Newberry Library

---

- > Learn about one of history's greatest and most controversial composers
- > Research at one of the major independent research libraries in the world
- > Attend operas and plays
- > Visit jazz clubs and museums
- > Experience Chicago culture in an entirely new way
- > Prepare yourself for graduate school

---

Logistics:

- > Study at the Newberry Library; accommodations in shared apartments in Chicago's Gold Coast neighborhood
- > Prerequisite: writing-designated course
- > Cost: Estimated at $525 (includes refundable housing deposit)
- > Program sponsored by ACM (www.acm.edu)

---

Questions? Contact:

James Martin

Professor of Music
Armstrong Hall 242

Amanda Ross

Office of International & Off-Campus Studies
College Hall 112

