

NEXT SPRING, HAVE A ONE-OF-A-KIND EXPERIENCE ABROAD...

- > Encounter a society in which religious practices are being reborn after being forbidden during more than sixty years of communist rule
- > Meet with shamans and Buddhist lamas and attend local religious festivals and rituals
  - > Visit newly reconstructed and ancient temples and shrines
- > Experience traditional nomadic life in the steppes
  - > Wake up in a yurt and help take care of the community's farm animals

REL 327 RELIGIONS OF CHINA AND JAPAN (IN MONGOLIA)

Term 9 2010-11 -- Prof. Steven Sacks

Additional cost estimated at $3500

[includes airfare, in-country transportation, excursions, local guides, guest speakers, some meals]

Questions? Contact:

Office of Int'l & Off-Campus Studies
Old Sem – 2nd floor      email: aross

Professor Steven Sacks
Prall House 108      email: ssacks