

SCHEDULE OF ORAL PRESENTATIONS

MONDAY MORNING: ECONOMIC POLICY

- Carrie Temm: The Social Security Act of 1935
- Sarah Ruen: Clinton, Divided Government, and a Balanced Budget
- Michelle Knowland: Passing Bush's Tax Cut of 2001
- Carissa Bunning: Congress and President Struggle for Power to Regulate Overtime Compensation

MONDAY AFTERNOON: CIVIL RIGHTS AND CIVIL LIBERTIES

- Steven Wieland: S. Res. 301: The Censure of Joseph McCarthy
- Erin Miller: The Voting Rights Act of 1965
- Jamie Lomheim: The Congressional Effort to Overturn Texas v. Johnson

TUESDAY MORNING: DOMESTIC POLICY & INTEREST GROUP POLITICS

- Tia Brougner: Bill Clinton and the 103rd Congress: Joined Efforts in Order to Pass the Brady Bill
- Lyndsay Leggott: The Effort to Drill the Arctic National Wildlife Refuge
- Nicole Knight: The McCain-Feingold Bill
- Amanda Glaser: The Partial-Birth Abortion Ban Act of 2003

TUESDAY AFTERNOON: FOREIGN ASSISTANCE & INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS

- Rae-Anne Peckman: Wilson and the League of Nations
- Joshua Schroeder: The Withdrawal of the United States from the 1972 Anti-Ballistic Missile Treaty
- Jillian Johnsen: The Escalating Cost of Iraq's Reconstruction
- Kristie DePeña: United States Leadership Against HIV/ AIDS, Tuberculosis, and Malaria Act of 2003

WEDNESDAY MORNING: WAR & PEACE

- Tamara Garvin: Wrestling for Power or Wrassling for Show? Congress, the President, and the Tussle Over Iraq
- Maria Rogge: The "PATRIOT" Game: A Case Study of the President's Powers to Shape Public Policy Legislation during Times of National Distress
- FINAL QUIZ