

SOCIOLOGY AND ANTHROPOLOGY

This document is a tool approved by the department as a complete and accurate checklist for 2014 graduates. Students who are meeting requirements with other courses than listed below must ask their advisor to file the waiver/substitution form (<http://www.cornellcollege.edu/registrar/gb-resources-faculty>). Students are expected to complete the major and minor requirements that were in effect at the time of Spring registration for their second year of courses. Transfer students who are admitted with sophomore or higher standing satisfy the requirements in effect when they begin their first course at Cornell. Students who have withdrawn from Cornell and are later readmitted follow the requirements in effect at the time of their readmission. Exceptions may be made by the department concerned in response to the student's petition, provided that such changes are feasible for and agreeable to the department.

Major: a minimum of 10 course credits in Sociology and Anthropology, which include:

	Completed	To Be Completed
1. SOC 101	_____	_____
2. ANT 101	_____	_____
3. SOC 387 or ANT 320	_____	_____
4. SOC 398 or ANT 322	_____	_____

six other courses, at least two in each discipline, and of which at least three are at or above the 300 level:

5. ANT	_____	_____
6. ANT	_____	_____
7. SOC	_____	_____
8. SOC	_____	_____
9.	_____	_____
10.	_____	_____

No more than two course credits in individualized research (one in SOC and one in ANT), and no more than three 100-level courses may be counted toward the total of 10 course credits.

Note: Students may not combine this joint major in Sociology and Anthropology with a Sociology major, an individualized major in Anthropology, or a Sociology or Anthropology minor.

SAN Teaching Major: Same as above. Completion of the above requirements meets the standards for teaching certification in both sociology and anthropology.

Prospective teachers must also apply for admission to the Teacher Education Program and complete a second major in Secondary Education described under Education. Prospective teachers should request a current list of the specific teaching major course requirements from the Education office.
