Because of the nature of the position, the RA is expected to be a presence in their community, especially early in the semester, a time critical for the development of a strong residential community. Individuals who have significant time commitments that prevent them from participating fully in fall training, from being a strong presence in their communities early in the semester or from assisting during opening and/or closing are expected to discuss those time commitments prior to accepting the position. Such time commitments include but are not limited to student teaching, off-campus study opportunities and athletics.

Remuneration

Each RA receives a room credit award of $2,400 toward a single room billed at a double room rate. This room credit is applied in conjunction with other financial assistance that individual may be receiving (each RA candidate is encouraged to meet with a member of the Financial Assistance staff to determine the impact, if any, on the student's financial aid). In the event that an RA is away from campus for more than six days in one block, or if the RA fails to fulfill the stated job responsibilities, Financial Assistance will be notified and the RA will be expected to repay a portion of the room credit for the time the RA is away. This includes time spent away for academic reasons.

Resignation/Termination

Once the academic year has begun, a resident assistant who chooses not to continue in the position or who is removed from the RA position for any reason will be required to move to a new room, floor and possibly the hall in which the student was employed as an RA. Should this happen, Residence Life will notify Financial Assistance and the student's aid will be adjusted accordingly.
