Official Policy: The complete listing of Cornell College key and lock policies and procedures for campus facilities can be read at cornellcollege.edu/residence-life/services/keys.

Ownership of Materials: All locks, keys, electronic access cards, and access codes are the sole property of Cornell College. Cornell College reserves the right to change locks, keys and access levels as needed. Duplication of keys issued by Cornell College is strictly prohibited and is considered a violation of college policy.

Key Usage: Access keys are assigned at an individual level and photo identification is required to obtain key(s). It is the responsibility of individuals to maintain control of their keys. Keys are not to be loaned or transferred to other individuals. A departing employee or one changing position must return their key(s) to the Office of Residence Life. Anyone found in the possession of another's keys or card shall have the keys or cards confiscated by the Office of Campus Safety.

Authorization: Keys are issued to faculty and staff only to the extent necessary for them to perform their jobs properly. Keys may temporarily be issued to students for reasons of research, off-hour studies, student employment or other legitimate purposes. Release of these keys must be authorized by the responsible department head. The authorizing party accepts all responsibility for use, return, or loss of these keys.

Key Returns: All keys must be returned to Office of Residence Life when duties no longer necessitate use of the key. Failure to return keys to the Office of Residence Life will result in a rekeying charge of $100 per lock. Additional results may include, but are not limited to, withholding of grades and/or transcripts, or a payroll deduction. Lost, missing or stolen keys are to be reported to the Office of Residence Life and Office of Campus Safety as soon as possible. When appropriate, 48 hours will be allowed for proof the missing key has been found. If an individual has two or more separate incidents of lost, stolen, missing or non-returned keys, the College may revoke their key privileges.

By signing this document I hereby acknowledge that I have read and understand the Cornell College key and lock policies and procedures for campus facilities and relevant statements above. I agree to abide by these policies and understand that possession of keys provides me access to secured areas, and that this brings with it appropriate responsibilities and subjects me to the sanctions deemed appropriate by the college administrative staff. By initialing below I also acknowledge that I received the requested keys and that they were in working condition upon checkout.
