

Dimensions is currently recruiting for a summer 2016 internship at the Mercy Medical Center complex in Cedar Rapids, IA. The internship is open to students in all majors, but is designed for a student interested in at least one of the following areas: public health, health administration, engineering, event planning, fundraising/business, and/or medicine.

Please contact the Faculty Director of Dimensions (Jai Shanata) if you have any questions about the internship or application process. Internship and application details appear below.

Employer	Mercy Medical Center ( Especially for You Race Against Breast Cancer )
Job Title	Community Engagement Intern
Description	This internship stems from collaboration with Michelle Cole, Race Director for the Especially for You Race Against Breast Cancer. Michelle will supervise the Cornell intern. One intern will provide a variety of project management support to the Race Director and Steering Committee of the Especially for You Race Against Breast Cancer. Intern responsibilities may include preparing materials for meetings, gathering data for committees, assisting with action plans, and responding to inquiries about the event. This individual will interact and work directly with community members, including those operating the Especially for You Fund, the City of Cedar Rapids, local police and fire departments, breast cancer survivors and their families, individuals diagnosed with breast cancer, the breast cancer survivor group, and the oncology unit at Mercy Hospital. See additional handout for more information on possibilities for structuring internship experience.
Application	Submit a resume, one-page personal statement describing motivation and qualifications for the internship, identifying the activities you would want to contribute to (from the additional handout), and an unofficial Cornell transcript to the Associate Director of Dimensions. You must also submit the name of a Cornell faculty member who can attest to your laboratory bench skills. It is advised that you work with the Writing Studio before submitting your personal statement. Please make an appointment with the Career and Civic Engagement Center to receive feedback on your resume before submitting.
Application Deadline	March 18 th
Location	Cedar Rapids, IA
Compensation	Dimensions will provide a $2,000 expense allowance to assist with food, housing, and transportation expenses. Dimensions can only provide funding support for credit-bearing internships. As such, the student selected for this placement will need to enroll in an internship course and identify a Cornell faculty sponsor for the internship. These arrangements can be made after the student is chosen for the position.
Housing	Housing will be arranged and paid for by the intern. Costs will be offset by the stipend.
Duration	Summer 2016 (Date range is flexible and negotiable) with ability to work through the October 16, 2016 race day if intern desires.
