

Application for Richard H. Thomas History Scholar Awards for Off-Campus Research

Please complete this form along with a 1-2 page statement of goals (described below) and return it to the Department Chair before the deadline specified on the Award Guidelines.

Name:

Standing (Sophomore, Junior, Senior):

Major(s) and Minor(s) (Current and/or Anticipated):

History Major or History Minor GPA:

Cumulative GPA:

History courses completed:

History courses you are planning to take later this year or next year:

List your main areas of interest in history (geographical region, time period, topics):

Off-Campus Courses taken previously and/or currently enrolled in (include block and year):

Course cost or estimated cost for internship or independent off-campus research (for internships and independent research attach an itemized budget to your 1-2 page statement for travel costs, lodging, food, or research expenses such as library fees, Xeroxing, equipment):

List any other sources of funding for which you are currently applying (Cornell Fellows Program, Class of '55 Award, Levy Award)

Please attach a 1-2 paragraph statement describing the off-campus course for which you are applying for a Richard Thomas History Scholar Award, and explaining how this off-campus experience will further your academic development and your professional goals. If you are applying for funding for independent research or an internship, this statement should be 1-2 pages in length.