

SOCIOLOGY

This document is a tool approved by the department as a complete and accurate checklist for 2015-2016 Catalogue. Students who are meeting requirements with other courses than listed below must ask their advisor to file the waiver/substitution form (<http://www.cornellcollege.edu/registrar/gb-resources-faculty>). Students are expected to complete the major and minor requirements that were in effect at the time of Spring registration for their second year of courses. Transfer students who are admitted with sophomore or higher standing satisfy the requirements in effect when they begin their first course at Cornell. Students who have withdrawn from Cornell and are later readmitted follow the requirements in effect at the time of their readmission. Exceptions may be made by the department concerned in response to the student's petition, provided that such changes are feasible for and agreeable to the department.

Major: A minimum of eleven course credits, including ten in Sociology, which include:

|   | Completed | To Be Completed |
|---|-----------|-----------------|
| 1. SOC 101 or SOC 102                         | _____     | _____           |

One course credit in individualized research (SOC 290/390 or 485) and one course credit in internship (SOC 280/380) may count toward the major.

Note: Students may not combine a major in Sociology with the joint major in Sociology and Anthropology.

Sociology Teaching Certification:

Same as above. In addition to the foregoing requirements, prospective teachers must also apply for admission to the Teacher Education Program and complete a second major in Secondary Education described under Education. Prospective teachers should request a current list of the specific teaching major course requirements from the Education office.

Second Teaching Area in Sociology: The following program in conjunction with a teaching major in Anthropology, Economics and Business, History, Politics, or Psychology will enable the student to apply for certification to teach both the major subject and Sociology: four course credits in Sociology approved by the chair of the Department.

Sociology Minor: A minimum of six course credits in Sociology which include:

|                                     | Completed | To Be Completed |
