

How to Section Search for Essential Abilities Courses:

Open the Section Search in Self-Service

Use the Keywords Search and put in one of the following:

(Quantitative

(Writing

(Intercultural

Putting in the first open parenthesis is the crucial part to getting the correct results

Section Search

---

Section Search

Specify information about the courses you are looking for, and select Search. You can refine any search by using the advanced search navigation.

Number of Seats:
The Registrar's Office holds seats for incoming new students who will register September 1st. The current maximum number of seats available for returning students.

Course Syllabi
If your professor has made it available, you can view the syllabus for a course.

Note on Empty Blocks
Students cannot have an empty block because it can have negative implications on your enrollment status, your financial aid, or your registration. You must have a registered course or a VAC 700 code (Seniors only) in every block. Do NOT drop a class and leave the block empty.

Basic Search   Advanced Search

Keywords   Course Code   Registration Type

      Traditional    Continuing Education    Both

Period   Session

Section Search

Section Search

Specify information about the courses you are looking for, and select Search. You can refine any search by using the available navigation.

Number of Seats:

The Registrar's Office holds seats for incoming new students who will register September 1st. The current maximum number of seats available for returning students.

Course Syllabi

If your professor has made it available, you can view the syllabus for a course.

Note on Empty Blocks

Students cannot have an empty block because it can have negative implications on your enrollment status, your financial aid, and you must have a registered course or a VAC 700 code (Seniors only) in every block. Do NOT drop a class and leave the block empty.

Basic Search

Advanced Search

Keywords

(Writing

Course Code

Registration Type

Traditional  Continuing Education  Both

Period

Session

Search

Clear

Section Search

Specify information about the courses you are looking for, and select Search. You can refine any search by using the available dropdown navigation.

Number of Seats:

The Registrar's Office holds seats for incoming new students who will register September 1st. The current maximum number of seats available for returning students.

Course Syllabi

If your professor has made it available, you can view the syllabus for a course.

Note on Empty Blocks

Students cannot have an empty block because it can have negative implications on your enrollment status, your financial aid, and you must have a registered course or a VAC 700 code (Seniors only) in every block. Do NOT drop a class and leave the block empty.

Basic Search

Advanced Search

Keywords

(Intercultural Literacy

Course Code

Registration Type

Traditional  Continuing Education  Both

Period

Session

Search

Clear